

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Bright Light	City of Edinburgh	£47,400	This group will employ a Young People's Coach to work with vulnerable young people both individually and in groups to develop a 'tool kit' that will help the young people develop life skills, cope with stress and anxiety, and promote good mental and emotional health. The project aims to benefit 300 young people across Edinburgh and Lothians over a two year period.
Ochil Youths Community Improvement CIC	Clackmannanshire	£44,964	This group will establish a young person led Friday night drama club for people aged 11-18 in Hillfoots, Clackmannanshire. The club will use professional drama artists from the Macroberts Arts Centre to introduce young people to drama, and then over the course of the project develop their confidence and ability. An annual performance will be given, which a wider group of young people will be invited to become involved in.
Eastriggs and Gretna Heritage Group	Dumfries and Galloway	£44,700	This project will see up to 100 young people using the Devil's Porridge Museum collection to learn about their family history and heritage, and be trained to deliver art and drama activities. Engagement opportunities will be developed through participation in 'schools' interactive handling sessions' facilitated to enable primary and secondary children to connect with history and culture by handling exhibits at the museum.
Shaper Caper Limited	Dundee City	£46,736	This group will deliver a project where young people can explore dance, digital and creative skills whilst engaging in physical theatre, film, photography and animation skills. The project is based in Dundee, Angus and Aberdeenshire and will benefit 125 young people.
QMU	East Lothian	£26,040	This university will use Scottish Mental Health First Aid Training (SMHFA) to increase awareness of mental health issues and provide simple steps to deliver help when it is needed. Training students in MHFA will create a network within the university community with the skills to spot signs of mental health amongst the students. The training will give them the confidence to offer support and advice, and the desire to contribute to the emotional wellbeing of their peers.
Articulate Cultural Trust	East Renfrewshire	£38,850	This trust will produce a quarterly digital magazine targeted at care experienced young people (CEYP) across Scotland. The 'e-zine' will be arts-based and will feature the talents of young people from all over the country. It will be produced by a young advisory group of CEYP aged 16-24. The project hopes to benefit 100 CEYP directly over two years and be read by countless more.

Organisation	Local Authority	Award	Project summary
Samba Ya Bamba	Glasgow City	£47,330	This group will use the funding to build upon the success of their existing project which delivered a city wide programme of street music taster sessions and which lead subsequently to the formation of a new youth street band. Sessions will be targeted at young people aged 11 plus who have not previously been involved in arts and will be held over a 15 month period, culminating in a street band festival featuring youth street band musicians from all over Scotland.
Scottish Sports Futures	Glasgow City	£45,876	This project will up-skill and empower local youth leaders from north east Glasgow so that they can engage with 75 children and their families with the aim of increasing their understanding of what a healthy lifestyle can be for them. The training will be based on the MEND (Mind, Exercise, Nutrition, Do it!) programme which is aimed at tackling childhood obesity; the 10 week programme not only focuses on the child but aims to benefit the entire family by changing unhealthy attitudes to food and activity.
MindMosaic Counselling and Therapy	Inverclyde	£42,644	This group will strengthen and expand their existing play therapy services for children and young people up to the age of 19. This project will incorporate superhero groups using creative activities such as role play, superhero comic books and storyboarding sessions with a play therapist and family worker. The grant will support 150 vulnerable children in Inverclyde who are dealing with a range of challenging issues.
Midlothian Young People's Advice Service	Midlothian	£49,932	This funding will be used for the youth project known as Midyouth. As a pilot funded by Midlothian Council for one year, Midyouth has become an established youth group for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning (LGBTQ) young people aged 12 - 21 from Midlothian. With increasing membership and increased requests for emotional support, the group will use the funding to provide a service dynamic enough to meet this demand.
Windmills Lanarkshire Ltd	North Lanarkshire	£49,960	This group will provide training and work experience opportunities for young people with moderate to severe learning disabilities through their community cafe. The grant will fund delivery of a two year SVQ2 Modern Apprenticeship programme in Hospitality for young people with learning disabilities. This is a group who suffer from reduced employability prospects and poor life chances and the project will directly address this and ensure that the young people are better prepared for getting a job.
Kustom Kruizers CIC	Renfrewshire	£45,000	This group will use the funding to establish their community bicycle building project. The project will teach young adults between the age of 13 and 21 how to strip, build and restore bicycles. The project will also give participants the opportunity to take charge of their own building project where they will build, advertise and then sell a bike. This one year project aims to engage with 300 young people from Paisley, Renfrew and Inchinnan.
Wiston Lodge	South Lanarkshire	£49,350	This funding will allow the group to continue and develop their 'Path of the little people' which has been designed and created by young people. Around 1600 young people aged between 8 and 24 will be involved in completing the construction of the path, which will include a miniature fairy village and tree-houses, and will help build young peoples' confidence.
